

Application for Reassessment of Destroyed or Damaged Property

As provided by Oregon Revised Statutes (ORS) 308.146(6)

Instructions:

- Application for reassessment can only be made for property that was destroyed or damaged on or after January 1 and on or before July 1 of the assessment year.
- This application changes the assessment date for your property to July 1 for this year only. If you plan to make major improvements to your property before July 1, you may want to keep your assessment date on January 1.
- File this application with the assessor of the county in which your destroyed or damaged property is located.
- If filed within 60 days of the damage or by August 1, whichever is later, there is no late filing fee. Later filing is allowed if filed by December 31 of the current assessment year and accompanied by a late filing fee.

Filed with the Marion County assessor for the assessment year starting January 1, ____.
